Dear Mr. Lada-Mocarski:

It was a great pleasure to meet you the other day at the Council on Foreign Relations.

I spoke to Antoinette of you and she told me of the very happy contacts she and Knox had with you and your wife.

I am giving myself the pleasure of sending for you both a book that my wife produced a year or two ago, which is being somewhat widely distributed in other lands as a message of friendliness from the American people.

I have just been looking over our annual report, which will reach you in a day or two, and would be most happy to have you break bread with me and discuss various things if you are free in the next few days.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr
