Mrs. Russell C. Leffingwell
38 East 69th Street
New York, New York

Dear Mrs. Leffingwell:

Through some oversight I forgot to send you the book "Mother and Child" by Mrs. Dorr, handled by The Dorr Foundation which has just given 150 copies to the United States Information Agency who requested them for distribution abroad.

The enclosed tells a bit about my wife which may interest you and about the book itself.

I do not know whether I mentioned another interest which is a safety project of a white line on the outside of the highway, but enclose a clipping from the New York Times regarding it. Both interests seem very far from a metallurgist but have been fun.

It was a pleasure to meet you at Goldthwaite's the other night.

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr

Enclosure -- County Fair reprint and brochure on "Mother and Child"
