New York 36, New York

Dear Mr. Logan:

Somehow, I have opened your letter addressed to Perry Trafford and the Dorr Foundation is sending you Mrs. Dorr's Book, "Mother and Child", together with an invoice for same. The Foundation has had presented to it another book by Mrs. Dorr some years ago which is really a collector's item, called "In A Blue Moon" and I am sending you a copy of it together with an invoice which might be called advance salesmanship - you know, the kind of thing we all do for charity.

Incidentally, I regret that I am not eligible for membership in the Harvard Club. My brother, Goldthwaite H. Dorr, has been a member and our family association with Harvard goes back a couple of hundred years. However, I was a maverick and went to Rutgers.

If you do not like the "Blue Moon" don't pay for it, and I will get Perry to collect for it!

Sincerely,

JOHN V. N. DORR
