Dear Mrs. Kerr - I did
enjoy meeting you
and sharing a few hours of companionship enroute to Dallas. Indeed, it was a privilege.

I tried to purchase
your exquisite book
in Dallas but the
shop had sold all
their copies. I have ordered several from
my book store here
and am anticipating
the joy of giving them
to friends for holiday
gifts.

Your daughter is a credit to a lovely
mother and I know
your visit was a
happy one.
