can possibly say!

On the twenty-second of this month I plan to leave for Ruth's place at Bethany Beach - I'll be home on the twenty-sixth.

Then on October fifteenth Ann Gardner and I plan to drive to Cornelia, Georgia to see her sister. I hope we'll be home by the twenty-fourth.

If either of these trips should conflict with your time in Cleveland, I'll try hard to change them.

You and John will like our descendants, and they will love you - I am so proud of you! My love to you both. Claire McCardel
