Dear Mrs. Meyer:

Please forgive the long delay in hearing from us. Through some trick of fate your letter disappeared. When it finally came to light I showed it to Mrs. Dorr, who was leaving for a holiday in the south. She asked me to tell you that as soon as she returns she will be going to her country home where her photographs are kept and see if she can find the one you would like to have. If found she will be glad to send it to you. This may take a little time but you will hear from us eventually and in the meantime I am returning your clipping.

Mrs. Dorr was deeply touched by the things you wrote about "Mother and Child" — to find people who share her feeling about motherhood is always a heart-warming experience to her and a source of inspiration. She is working on a new book "The Bare Feet". It is marvellous! Will be writing you soon I hope —

Sincerely
