to replace copy lost in mail.*

Dear Miss Goodwin,

What happy news your kind letter brought! Enclosed you find a check for $27.00 which covers 10 books at $2.70 a copy ... which may easily induce me to send another such request before the year is out. Should there be any possibility of Neh Dorr's book going out of print altogether I should be very distressed both for the Dorr Foundation and for myself as I know of no book that means so much to me — Can you tell me why Harper's no longer prints it and if the Dorr Foundation would possibly not do so?

a first and second installment of books has arrived ... In the 1st was one book, in the second came two books and I think the 1st installment may have been tampered with as the package was opened upon arrival. The second was intact, 2 books inside -

Thank you so much for your attention to my request.. and for letting me have such a wealth of books - My next letter to you will be alive with jubilation!

Yours most sincerely,

[Mrs. F. C.] Margaretta Mitchell
