Dear Dr. Dorr:

Your letter of February 2nd arrived promptly. I delayed replying at once, for the book by your wife that you mentioned had not arrived. Meantime I have watched for it with care, but thus far it has not appeared in the mails.

I should have written earlier to thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending the book and I am sorry I have not had an opportunity to see it. I have not had a chance to inquire at the library if it is there, but I had planned to send the copy you were sending me to the head of our Department of Education. We have a very good children's school on the campus, which is partly an experimental school for students who are planning to teach small children.

Please accept my apologies and delayed appreciation for your letter and for your kind intentions. Sometime when I am in the New York area, I shall hope to purchase the book for myself.

Sincerely yours,

Helen MacM. Voorhees
Director
