Gentlemen:

We have received as a gift from you enlargements of some photographs from the book Mother and Child by Nell Dorr, copy of which you also presented to this Library. Because we are not an art museum and because we have no provisions for such pictures, we are returning them to you in the thought that they can be more useful elsewhere. We do appreciate your courtesy and thoughtfulness in sending them.

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Lutie Mae Springer
