Eugene S. Troy,
Assistant to Mr. Dorr
99 Park Avenue
New York City 10, New York

My dear Mr. Troy:

In belated reply to your inquiry of November 30, 1955, I have found that but one book was sold and one has just disappeared "we know not how." We are enclosing a check for $6.00 and retaining $3.00 as our commission on these two books.

Under separate cover we are returning the 2 unsold copies of Mrs. Dorr's book. Our little shop is really not set up for articles on consignment since that would require more bookkeeping than we are geared to handle, but we made an exception of Mrs. Dorr's book at the request of Mr. Victor Knauth, President of the Board of Trustees.

Thanking you for being so patient with us, I am

Respectfully,

Mrs. Henry Booth
Director
