January 4, 1955

Mrs. Lieff Rosanoff
434 West 120th Street
New York, New York

My dear Marie:

I have your invitation to the wedding of your daughter and we shall be delighted to come to the wedding and reception.

I am sending under separate cover a new book that my wife has gotten out which I know your daughter will appreciate. Incidentally, I am enclosing herewith some things my wife has written regarding her photographic career.

With warmest regards to all of you,

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr

Enclosures (Mary Margaret McBride article and County Fair reprint)

JVND/est

Dictated but not read before mailing.