Dear Miss Pietz:

Thank you for your letter of October 1st and the enlightening information regarding the book you are preparing. I read the contents of your letter to Mrs. Dorr and she is most interested in its character and aim and will be more than pleased to have her photograph reproduced for this cause.

I am sending you herewith a glossy print which I trust will serve your purpose.

I also mentioned to Mrs. Dorr the matter of reproduction fee which you found rather high converted into German Marks. Although this fee for American standards must be considered very low, Mrs. Dorr will be happy to make the print available to you at such fee as is customary in your country.

Needless to say, reproduction of this print requires due credit to the artist.

With our very best wishes for the success of your book,

Sincerely,

Tine Everhard
