Dear Mrs. Everhard,

Many thanks for your very kind letter of September 26th, 1957.
We are very grateful to Mrs. Nell Dorr for allowing us to reprint the photograph 'Mother and Child'. We are looking forward to Mrs. Dorr's book with pleasure.

In the meantime we should like to explain the character of the book we prepare for a German industrial firm. It is only a small book, of 160 pages, containing about 50 articles by modern journalists or scientists, and some poems, as well as illustrations. The title of the book will be "Aus unserer Zeit" (From our times) and it tells of the unrest in our times and of the sources where the strength to live can still be found. We should like to have Mrs. Nell's picture to illustrate the "Poems of Mothers" by Gabriela Mistral. Other important authors are: Robert Musil, Siegfried von Vegesack, Alfred Polgar, Hermann Hesse, Werner Heisenberg etc. This book shall be given to the personnel of the firm as a Christmas present; it is no commercial journal and no catalogue, but a literary anthology.

May we beg you for an additional favor: $ 25.00, transferred into German currency, is a very high price compared with German usage; we pay usually up to DM 50.-, and we should like to mention that we are paying a better price than a lot of other publishers or agencies which pay (or bill) DM 20.- or 30.-. $ 25.00 is more than DM 100.-. This why we dare to beg you to reconsider the price if possible.

Very sincerely yours,
