Mr. Robert Carrick
Tampa University Press
Penobscot, Maine

Dear Mr. Carrick:

I am referring to your circular for the Traversity Press,
Penobscot, Maine.

I am sending an order for both books mentioned therein, HOOF BEATS TO HEAVEN and ANNA ELLA CARROLL AND ABRAHAM LINCOLN, to Miss Gladys Burch, Burch Books, Darien, Connecticut, a close personal friend who is doing a wonderful job in the book business.

You certainly paint the most attractive picture in regard to both of your authors.

The Dorr Foundation, on whose Board I am, has also been interested in publishing a book, quite different from each of these, and somehow you have made me wish to have your office have a copy of it. I am therefore sending you, under separate cover, a copy, together with some data on it and the author and will only ask in return that if your friends come this way they will stop and see us either at Washington, Connecticut, where we are part of the time, at Westport, Connecticut, another time, and in New York the rest of the time.

They and you might be interested in knowing that the U. S.
Information Agency requested 150 copies of these books for distribution and since then have asked for 800 copies additional to go to all parts of the world where they maintain libraries and agencies.

Sincerely,

John V. N. Dorr
