Dear Mr. Dorr:

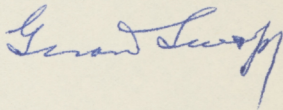

Thank you very much for sending me the book on, Mother and the Child, by Mrs. Dorr which I have looked over but am taking home to look at much more carefully.

I saw Mrs. Dorr at the Luncheon for Jane Addams Peace Association on Wednesday and was glad to see her looking well. But I didn't see you since you were not there. I told Mrs. Dorr to tell you and remind you of my continued existence in New York and that I would be glad if you could call me up and tell me what day is convenient for you to have lunch with me and renew our acquaintance.

Best wishes.

Very sincerely,

Mr. J. V. N. Dorr
