January 24, 1955

Miss Mary C. Sullivan
The Scribner Book Store
597 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York

Dear Miss Sullivan:

One afternoon last week, Dr. Dorr met you at the bookstore at Fifth Avenue and discussed with you "Mother and Child" by Mrs. Dorr.

He has asked that I write and send you some information regarding the author which we think may interest you. I am sending you a reprint from a newspaper in Fairfield, Connecticut, copy of a story written by Mrs. Dorr for Mary Margaret McBride, and copy of a letter she wrote to the Gevaert Company in Antwerp, Belgium.

Shortly you should be receiving an autographed copy of the book for your own personal enjoyment.

Sincerely,

Eugene S. Troy
Asst. to Dr. Dorr

Enclosures