Dear Mrs. Dorr:

I cannot begin to express my grateful thanks for your kindness in sending me those sets of your lovely photographs. They are beautifully reproduced, and I have already set in motion the framing of several of those you sent me. I also have sent a set of them on to Mr. Olsson in West Point, the gentleman who inquired after them more than a year ago. We also plan to use two of these pictures on the editorial page, with full credit, of course, to you and your publisher.

With my warmest appreciation, believe me,

Faithfully yours,

James J. Kilpatrick
