

idea of what I may expect in those parts.

Yes, the Greene "OR" outfit have three divisions, and have been told that they make the most complete outfit in Arizona when all three wagons are together.

There is no need of special hurry on my account as I will not start for my home in Texas until May, so take your time.

It may be possible that I will be in the neighborhood of Cuchillo and Las Palomas, as I have now a letter of introduction sent me by one of Swift's foreman in Texas to a Mr. Nealey of Edward Swift's outfit near Engle, N. M.

I'm quite sure I would get some valuable material if I could catch all the outfits to-gether.

I would appreciate your letter of introduction very much indeed, and will have the publishers of the "World's Work" send each of the foreman a copy of their January number if you suggest.
Thanking you very much for your thoughtfulness and assistance, I am, yours sincerely,
E. W. Smith.
