BERMUDA RANCH

SHROPSHIRE / HAMPSHIRE } DOWN SHEEP

ERWIN E. SMITH, Prop

SHORTHORN CATTLE

BONHAM, TEXAS

July 26, 1926.

If the Shoe-Bar outfit was making record strides for the corrall fence with an enfuriated old cow horning the dust out of his tail was going.

Mr. Tex Austin,

Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr. Austin :

In answer to yours of the 13th. wish to state that it will be perfectly alright if you can make your selection of the pictures on or about Aug. 1st. I have a great many calls for prints and it is necessary that I keep them in circulation.

The printing of the large pictures cost me one dollar each and when your half-tone engravers are through with them and you wish to return them a credit of one dollar will be allowed.

In a new magazine which will come out in Septtember

So along with his work the cowboy has many humorous situations to relieve the motoning of his life

4

Psychological

Comment No. 1 You might say that I began to see visions of trot-hill a well known grass yard man-by- which too adventurous caracter ~~had to~~ had found a restless place with this ~~bull~~ cow.

2 The horse follows movements of the cow or ~~bull~~ steer in question with almost human intelligence and pushes it to the outer edge of the herd, then with a sudden dash - the cow or steer is headed for the "cut" The work is accomplished with such skill, and precision that the act is over before you have time to realize what has happened.

effort cutting horse

3 Of course the cowboys enjoyed my game of tag with the bull as ~~as they~~ and ~~made with~~ had the laugh on me. But not sooner had I climbed to safety than I heard a wild shout from the other side of the corrall ~~and~~ and as I looked around Will Sears owner