TEACHERS COLLEGE
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
NEW YORK

DEPARTMENT OF FINE ARTS
ARTHUR WESLEY DOW, DIRECTOR

May 2, 1917.

Miss Clara E. Sipprell,
601 West 168th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Sipprell:

You must have given up all expectation of hearing from me. I intended to write you but the days have slipped by and here we are in May. I should be very glad to have you make the photograph of which you speak. The only trouble would be to find time for the sitting. I do not know whether you would prefer to do it here or have me go somewhere else. I am more likely to have time ~~this~~ some Thursday, Friday or Saturday morning than on any other days. I will make any arrangement that suits you.

With much appreciation, I remain
Very truly yours,

Arthur W. Dow

I shall be away Friday and Saturday of this week.