Dear Eliot & Aline:

Thank you for your recent telegram requesting that Congress stop this illegal war in Vietnam.

You will be interested to know that I recently voted to withdraw all U.S. troops from Southeast Asia by the end of the 92nd Congress. Hopefully, President Nixon will withdraw our forces even sooner. Of course, I will continue to work to that end here in Congress.

Your support for the movement to end this tragic conflict is to be commended. I hope you will continue to let me know your views on matters coming before Congress.

Sincerely,

HAROLD RUNNELS, M.C.
