Gentlemen:

✓ "The Last Days of Polyphemus," written by ✓ C. Brooke Worth and photographed by Eliot Porter, pp.
22-29, appeared in the March 1970 issue of Audubon.

We have developed a fifth grade unit on life cycles in conjunction with human maturation and growth and would like permission to make five (5) sets of slides of the artwork for those children who do independent study in our five elementary schools.

Will it be possible to arrange for the rights?
We would use the slide sets only in the classroom in the Niskayuna Public Schools.

We do hope an agreement can be reached.
Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Harriet D. Murphy / H.A.
