Dear Eliot:- Glad to get yours of 7/2/81.
We attended Annual Meeting of Adirondack Museum. Your large illuminated transparencies in the lobby are fine as ever!
After the formal meeting, a Memorial Service for Harold K. Hackschillo was held in front of the main building entrance. Over 200 attended and Arthur Savage made the main address in which he eloquently commented on
a) The original "Township 34" Volume
b) The Museum and c) H.K.H.'s character and experiences. It was very moving and I hope it will be published. If it is, we'll send you a copy. His son, Adam, accepted a framed copy of the Resolution passed by The Adirondack Agency, of which Arthur Savage is now a member.

The last few days have been sunny and warm, - typical July Adirondack

July days. Much of July was quite cold - 38° one morning, - and unusually rainy. But, this was welcome as it relieved the drought of last winter and this spring.

Last night, Katie Godwin Lopez and her spouse, Bernie hosted a Costume buffet dinner for all currently here "on the lake". Jerry Raymond played his guitar, songs were sung and dances danced and it was an old time gala evening. July and August are a continuing and revolving Sage family reunion. Cousins and friends come and go, - keeping all accommodations filled. Occasionally some of the younger ones resort to Teak and bed rolls.

Warmest regards and all best wishes to Aline and your good self. Sincerely Dave M.A.
