Dear Eliot:

Your beautiful color print arrived in fine shape and is now at the framemakers. It is one of the finest color prints I have ever seen, and I am quite overwhelmed at such a Christmas present. Nancy I know will be thrilled when she sees it. She is now in San Francisco, working with Ansel on another book, and I am going out on January first to spend the month with her.

Thank you, Eliot, for the print, which we'll hang on our wall of our house where it will be a constant delight and a reminder of our friendship.

To you and Aline, a productive and a happy New Year.

Yours,

Beaumont.
