Dear Eliot:

Here are two copies of the June issue of THE LIVING WILDERNESS featuring your Antarctica images.

We came as close as we could to your preferences on the color. I hope the results will seem generally satisfactory.

We shall hold the transparencies here until you return to Santa Fe unless you instruct us to do otherwise. A check will be sent to you soon.

The magazine is being put into the hands of key people involved in decisions on antarctic policy, and I am hopeful that the photos and Jim Barnes' article will have an influence in the right direction.

All good wishes.

Yours sincerely,

James G. Deane
Editor, THE LIVING WILDERNESS
