Dear Mrs. Porter,

I am writing to let you know that the Museum of New Mexico was able to unearth one of the transparencies I wanted which was taken by Mr. Porter for E. Boyd's book on New Mexican Santos. This photograph shows the head of a crucifix and will be used on a full page in our first issue.

The magazine's circulation is under 40,000 and, I believe, the Museum of New Mexico charges only $10 for its use. Please send your reproduction fee bill to my attention.

And have a lovely summer. A comp copy of the first issue will be sent to you in Maine.

Sincerely,

Susan Colgan
Picture Editor
