Dear Mr. Porter:

I wanted to thank you again for spending time with me during my recent visit. It was both worthwhile for my project, and also, for me, personally inspiring. Your prints were beautiful, and I'm seriously considering learning how to do dye-transfer work myself because of the quality I saw. Up to this time, I just assumed that it had to be done commercially.

The slides came out well, and the interview has much more material than I need.

Again, thanks very much. If you should ever need any information about galleries in this area, or if I could be of help to you in any way, please don't hesitate to write or call.

Sincerely,

Daniel De Wilde
