

NEW YORK GRAPHIC SOCIETY

September 27, 1976

Mr. Eliot Porter
Tesuque, New Mexico 87501

Dear Eliot Porter,

You may remember my writing you almost fifteen years ago in connection with a new magazine I was then preparing; you and Dave Brower were most cooperative, and I've always been grateful! I'm now the head of an art book firm which is part of Little, Brown and Company, the Boston trade publishing house.

New York Graphic Society distributes photography books for the Museum of Modern Art, and we publish a good many other distinguished photographers -- including Ansel Adams. Bill Clift has suggested the possibility of a book devoted to your work -- not oriented to specific subject matter, but to your career as a photographer. I would be very much interested in this project, and I'm writing to ask if you would be? I'll look forward to hearing from you, and you have my very best wishes for continued success.

Cordially,

Tim Hill
Editor in Chief
