Dear Mr. Porter:

I have your letter of the 10th. Your name is well known to me as an old friend of the magazine, and for that reason especially I'm sorry to see you terminate your membership in the Nation Associates.

But we certainly cannot say that you have not discharged any moral obligation you ever had toward the magazine and its type of journalism. You will always be remembered gratefully here and, I hope, for many more years as a subscriber as well.

Sincerely,

James J. Storrow, Jr.
Publisher

P.S. Your current payment carries your subscription through January, 1974.
