Dear Mr. Porter:

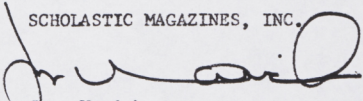

Scholastic Magazines, Inc. recently entered into an agreement with you, dated October 1, 1973, for a filmstrip program entitled IMAGES OF MAN II. The program is nearly completed and we are now planning to launch a promotion campaign to sell the program to the schools. In reviewing the contract we realize that it does not explicitly provide for the use of your photographs for promotion purposes.

We are now asking permission to use not more than five (5) of your photographs at any one time to aid in the promotion and sale of the IMAGES OF MAN II program free of charge. This will include advertisements, promotion brochures, etc. We will, of course, run the appropriate copyright information with such photographs as well as information about the purchase of the IMAGES OF MAN II program. Should the use of more than five photographs be required at any one time, we will pay a fee for any such additional photographs.

If you are in agreement with the above, please sign this letter in the place indicated below and return one copy to me. Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

SCHOLASTIC MAGAZINES, INC.
