Dear Sir:

Under the terms of my contract dated December 6, 1965 with Mr. Harold K. Hochschild in regard to the publication of "Forever Wild - The Adirondacks", royalties on the book will begin to accrue to my account when sales reach such a volume that the advance I received will have been exceeded by 5 per cent of the retail price of the total number of sales.

Since the book is now in its third printing, could you send me a statement on royalties, giving the retail price and number of copies sold to date.

Yours sincerely,
