Dear Dr. Porter:

You will be pleased to hear that we plan to use the photographs listed here in our book:

The American West by Ann and Myron Sutton -- to be published in the Fall of 1969.

It is understood that the publisher has the non-exclusive right to use such photographs in all editions, adult and juvenile, of the book ~~and in all foreign languages~~, reprints, book club editions and abridgements, and in publicity on the book. It is understood that the publisher may copyright the work as well as revisions and future editions and that you own the photographs and have the right to grant these rights. Said copyright will not limit any future sales of the photographs for any purpose.

Proper credit will be given ~~for~~ <sup>under</sup> each of the photographs used and all transparencies will be returned <sup>as soon as printing has</sup> been completed. undamaged and unaltered

If this is agreeable to you, will you please sign and return the copy of this letter. Payment will be made as soon as we receive the copy.

Payment for use in all future editions is to be negotiated.

Sincerely yours,

Constance Sullivan
