Dear Mr. Eliot:

My Declaration got hung up again so I'll not send it on at this time. Everyone seems overextended, overbusy.

Thanks for the news of your travels and interests. I'm looking forward to your next book/books.

In September I hope to be able to visit the Lake Superior country where I used to live. Perhaps you know the book, SUPERIOR, published by Harper & Row, photos by Charles Steinhacker. It doesn't come up to your work.

Sincerely,

Made Van Dore
