Dear Dr. Porter:

The purpose of this letter is to outline the terms of an agreement whereby Meisel agrees to purchase limited use of color enlargements from your original transparencies, ~~and use in a decorator print project~~ and

Meisel Photochrome Corporation hereby agrees to pay you fifty dollars ($50.00) for each of your photographic transparencies selected for duplication, and use in a decorator print project - specifically a building in Jacksonville, Fla. and

The original transparencies are to be shown to the Allen Ferry Design Group, Atlanta, Georgia for selection of a quantity of originals to be duplicated and enlarged for display. No more than four photographic prints will be made from each original under the terms of this agreement.

Meisel further agrees to pay an additional fifty dollars ($50.00) for each color print or mural made from the same transparencies and sold to other customers in the future (with the exception of replacement prints).

It is understood and agreed that said transparencies will be returned to you as soon as the internegatives and control prints are made and approved by the customer; and that you shall retain the rights to use them in any manner you desire. But Meisel shall have the right to make photographic prints from the original via internegatives without limitation as to size. It is further understood and agreed that Meisel and it's customer(s) shall have the right to use said duplicates in brochures, catalogs and advertisements published for the purpose of selling said enlargements. You hereby give permission to Meisel to use your name in the selling, adver-
