Dear Eliot:

We are progressing on the details of Portfolio I as fast as possible I guess. I am attaching an order sent today to Perry Davis regarding placing the order for 105 cases of similar construction to Ansel's. We are leaving the color open, but Mr. Davis can go ahead on planning the basic board, ordering and cutting etc.

I took the liberty of discussing with Dave the color on the Portfolios--I wasn't sure how the light green he wanted would look in a large sheet, so I ordered samples--I'm attaching them also (the red-brown is what Dave wants for Glen Canyon Portfolio II).

He is open to suggestion on the Portfolio I green, so please comment as you wish. He wants to leave the black and white for Ansel (we already have two of these--Portfolio I and II of AA's) so I guess that is out.

I am enclosing a large sheet of the green together with a few small swatches of others you might prefer. If you want any of them in large sheets, let me know. They are all Bradford Linens in your Columbia Mills book cloth. (see book I hope the Mills sent you)

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Wilson (Mrs. A.)
