Dear Miss Spencer

Thank you for your letter about your forthcoming article on the Galapagos Islands. I would indeed like to see a copy of your magazine but I will not make that a condition of permitting you to use the iguana photograph you are interested in. However, I think you should be prepared to pay for its use as well as giving credit. The fee is difficult for me to determine, since I know so little about the circulation of your magazine, but I should think it should be in the range of $100 to $200 depending on how the picture is used.

Yours sincerely

Eliot Porter
