Dear Eliot:

Here's a letter from the editor at Walkers about the Mexican pictures and it looks as if they are genuinely interested. I'm not sure when you are due back or if you come back by way of New York. As you know I'll be in Maine for August but if you return end of J^Uly perhaps you should let me know and I could fix a meeting--or if you come in August (and by way of New York) you could call Lois Cole yourself and arrange to see her. Some interim word about things from Iceland would be useful so as to keep the pot boiling.

I hope you are having a good time amidst Geysers and rocks and birds flitting around --here we seem to have nothing but rain and you can be glad you were not in Maine for I gather they had it too. We're now on our sixth successive day and last Monday my railroad was washed out all the best

Diarmuid
