Dear Eliot:

This Mr. Stacey does seem irritable and I don't know why he would make a fuss over a procedure that dozens of other magazines do routinely--but smaller magazines are often difficult.

However I'm distressed that what was a modestly substantial deal has been put aside and would like to do what I can to see if it can be rescued and some sort of harmony restored so I've written a letter to the gent for you to read and send on if you approve--or you can scrap it if you have got annoyed yourself with Mr. Stacey.

It may be that they expect to own further rights in your pictures and to utilize them in some fashion--but of course this is what we don't want

yours
