Dearest Eliot,

A package of transparencies goes with the same mail registered. It contains 77 transparencies and a list. The packaging is a bit "unverständlich" because I couldn't get a box here. In N.Y. I shall try to get the Sauder-Iffi collection and then write you the existing prints, should you wish to have them. I assume that you have the complete list of the A Collection of my photos. Therefore I did not write out all the difficult names of the places in which they were made. If not, I can put them together from my tattered Iffi book. Maybe you would have a look at the unprinted ones in a viewer or projector just in case one or the other fits the purpose of the book. Although I am sure you have enough of your own. I am very interested how things are going and what kind of a book it will be. It is an experience you have had many times but for me it is a novelty.

Maine is more beautiful than ever. As it will be Bille's last summer in her house, everything has a special meaning. I, too, wonder if I will ever come here again. After about 47 years it feels like a wrench. Imagine, this is how long you and I know each other!

Did you get Aline's negative?

Are you feeling better? (not because of the negative)
Bille sends you greetings.

With much love
Ellen
