Dearest Bu,

Enclosed is a check of $250.00 which represents 50% of the payment, I received today from my orthodontist for the orange wreath. Sanders nobly forfeited their share. I guess because I have really been instrumental for the show as well as the sale. But I appreciate it just the same, as they could have insisted. They are moving to another Gallery, which slows down everything. But very soon they will make a list of the most needed reprints and I will send it to you. Or they will. How are the chances, that you can make them?

The show is still running until Feb. 22d. Goggi was enormously moved and delighted when he saw it. With organmusik and a choir it did add a lot! I had a chance to get in touch with the publisher of Art News who might send a reporter there.

Goggi helps me very much to get my photo stuff in some kind of order. Little as it is, it is a lot of work. We have a good time together.

Mr. Bunnell has not contacted me so far.

What are your next plans? How are you? Aline?

Much love B

Dear Eliot,

The wonderful Mexico pictures exposed in that tremendously impressive Cathedral made me remember very good times, long ago...

With all my best wishes

Goggi
