Dearest Ben,

Slowly I am getting very concerned about your long silence. I letters have received no single line from you. If you are too busy or too annoyed with me I can understand it. But I wonder if you are well and reasonably happy? Please, drop me a line! How far is the China book? What are you looking on now? Not much news in my life. How is Aline?

Much love D.

P.S. I saw Helen Gee at the opening of Sanders "temporary" gallery the other day. She writes a book about her life and sounded a little bitter about the present.
