

Dec. 2, 1988

Happy Eliot Porter Day, dearest Eliot!

Will you be celebrated madly? I am sending you good wishes and congratulate us to your having been born.

Again, thank you for the lovely West book.
Last night I watched a movie on Georgia

O'Keefe. It is easy to understand how the West can entrance you. She was a beautiful, powerful woman. Even more beautiful, when she was old. She also seemed to have more humor, than when I met her. (about 1940)

The Xmas spirit is spread around here in a revolting way. I wonder how Jesus would have felt about it? No, I don't wonder.

I send you love

Ellen
