

Tuesday -

Scott, dear, Stuart darling. (my loves)

Just took Peter to take the airplane - loaded down with guitars, books etc. We are having rotten weather the dogs of Carla. can't help wondering how bad it has been in New Orleans. I read where the waves on Pouchatrain were seven feet tall. - That ain't small. Think about you constantly and am dying to hear from you. The house is very empty - will have to adjust of course. Guess I did not realize how much I'd miss you two bugs.

It was so good to talk to Sta on Sunday a.m. Where were you Scott?

Pitty Pat is sitting in my window watching the rain and

The wind.
