

Monday
(only) 95 days 'til spring vacation !!

Dear Stu -

Your typing isn't too impressive. Anywhicheaway thanks for writing me. My Taper is up here - but I'm getting some work done on it right now + I can't send you a tape - send me one + I'll get one back to you.

You missed out on a hell of a lot of fun New Year's Eve. Me, Snow, Campbell, + Trout went out screwing around + ended up at the Rio Motel where we ran into about everyone. Needless to say, everybody was drunk as hell and bottles were flying all around,
people were involuntarily going ~~swimming~~ swimming, and TV's etc. were being grabbed out of rooms left + right - not to mention the doors which were torn loose, windows + car windows broken, + girls assaulted. It was pretty much fun.

School is a horrible as usual - and as dull.
Right now there is a snow storm going on outside
- which isn't a lot of fun. My pinky roommate moved out (about time) + now I have the whole room all to myself; I won a free Ray Charles album for ~~it~~ being 1962 ~~casual~~ customer no. 5000 at a music store in Denver, and I'm still alive - so I guess I still have my old luck. I just hope it pulls me thru on my grades.

There ain't much else to say right now.
Send me a tape and I'll send one back. Record the son of a bitch on both sides at 1 1/2 ips and you'll get about 45 minutes in. I'll see you around - In the meantime - BE GOOD !!

Fuck You -
Bill
