Dear Stu -

Thanks for writing. Our fuckin' snakes ain't got here yet, but should be here in a couple of days. I thought to be fun to watch them eat. We are going to feed them on baby chickens. Too bad about Ross! That picture is really funny as hell - also typical of DeHart & Truelson. I'll bet old Truelson's old man & old lady really ate that picture up. Well - I fucked a Chem test today destroying my B average in the process. I get out the 13th, why don't you go home early - I guess I'll bring my gun home, but I have to bring the damned snake back, too. It's too cold for 'em up here. It's going to be good when Scott's a famous artist and in all the history books, there'll be about a couple of lines about his less talented ~~so~~ twin brother who was a real slob!

Me + another guy kept bugging this radio station about putting on a blues show (Lightnin' Hopkins, Jimmy Reed, Ron Holden etc.) like on WRR.
Finally they did, and it's become the number one radio program in this area, which proved to the slobs up here that Texas music is the best.

I am sending the picture back to Truelson so you don't have to worry about it. I'll see you when I get home -
