

Dear Scott, you must come to Sebring. It's just the thing to do. Every body who is susceptible to spring fever (and if you're not you should be) should jump up Eureka-like the moment lethargy sets in and get it all over at once in the sleepy-wild endless days and nights of Sebring. It's the cure for what ails you, as my black mammy says. It's a release from everything. I don't share Timmy's enthusiasm for Ferraris and Sunbeams and I simply cannot go into ecstasies over ~~Stan~~ Sterling Moss and Graham Hill (I always want to say Grant Wood) but it is nice to have to fight the elements instead of the College Community.
And you can watch Timmy's
