MILLS COLLEGE

Dear Stuart,

I am delighted that your conscience tormented you into writing me a letter - not that you should have felt guilty, but I am pleased, nonetheless.

I can just see you & Scott on your jaunt out to the old sugar plantation (it's hard for me to picture Sant shirts as earthy, but dill pickles I can see.) Do you think Scott will ever make an artist out of you? Actually Stuart, I think you can rely on your B.S. It's so good you don't need to paint. Absalom, Absalom is supposed to be quite good I know - as a matter of fact, on your recommendation, I'm going out to get it the first chance I get. Have you read any Philip Roth? If not read Book-by Columbus.

You nearly had a surprise visit from me & two of my ~~po~~ friends from Mills - we got so bored & restless yesterday that we were seriously considering taking a train down to New Orleans, without telling anyone.
Some night if I've had enough to drink I'm just lidle to do it.

How is school? More entertaining than Mills I'm sure - Have you heard anything from Nancy? I haven't as of yet.

Please do send me some of your stories as soon as you can - I can't think of anything I'd rather have.

I'll see you sometime in manner.

Love,
Ann
