Dear Jim and Stewart,

Since we arrived in Macon I have ^{been} thinking of some small college where I might go for the spring quarter. Several have come to mind - Mercer, Furman in Greenville S.C., and Birmingham-Southern in Birmingham, Ala.

The semester tests have begun at Zulane and I'm sure you and Stewart are in the books.

The book I promised you will be arriving soon; it should be a good guide to plantation houses in La.

Pardon this short and scratchy letter.
Will do better next time. Sincerely,
Bill
