

Bless your sweet self
for being concerned about me after Tracy's death. I must say I've never known to be from so much in my life & felt so helpless in that even believe it or not,
my religion could not pull this one out for the child's parents.

I'm delighted that spring spring you &
please don't get retail on us before you
return or we'll never see what you've done.

This has been the gloomiest spring I've ever seen - nothing good nowhere except perhaps Ann & Hardwick's wedding

- but even in that case I've been to parties far
her. full of females -
that lasted 3 hours -
grief that's a long time to listen to chatter -
female or otherwise

Lyndon is still very much with us. J. brought him down to see some people & "show off me"
had to hold him & he shot white stuff all
over my new blue dress.
Story of my life.

I'm so pleased about the wedding but I do

hate to see you leave the house on Bryce.
It is so convenient &
makes a good studio &
is a great spot for dropping in. Maybe N A's house will be just as fine. Let's hope so.

I'm mauling tonight
Take care & hope to see you soon

As ever -
Shirley -
