

Dear Stuart,

Rec'd your nice letter & was I glad to get it. I'm getting along just fine. Thank to you & Scott walking me all around your house. I don't really think that I learned to walk without your help. We have had the worst winter, sun, wind & every thing, I've been 20 below zero hours most of the time, but its a little bit warmer to-day. Thanks Stuart for the lovely Valentine. I loved it. You always remember me. I loved your Valentine. It was lovely. Thanks so much for remembering me. I loved it it.

I'm very glad your Mom is getting married. He is such a wonderful man & will love all your children. I'm so glad for her as you ^{now} must have had such a miserable time & you know that. I felt so badly about Patch's brother that was just too bad. "This is a car accident."

Well ~~How~~ I'm so glad that you are going on the law school.
You will never regret - ^{aint} Aunt Bert told me she talked with you. That is a wonderful profession. If you will never regret - it. (good luck) I would love to see you boy you know how much I love you.
Now I'm just - fine so don't worry about me. You taught me to walk I'm happy that you are at school & please go on to law school. You will never regret - It's very hard to - day if you don't have a profession. (don't know as that spelled correctly) Please go on to school you'll make a good lawyer, you have a very nice speaking voice & you are a fine looking boy

Well honey I'll call this all. I was so pleased to get your nice valentine, also Aunt Bert Aunt Bert & Uncle flew to Cal, his Mother died very suddenly with a heart, they are coming back Tuesday. Write when you have time I'm very happy about you (M om) He is a wonderful man & your Mom had such a miserable time as you know, She will love a nice home You boys will allway be welcome as you know.

I love your letter I don't so much to me & please go to law school.

Grandma f.

(xxxxx Here's a few kisses for you

(Thank for the nice Valentine)

I loved it also

Am't Got - loved her.

It was the only one I rec'd / Ha / Ha
